

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear misuse of power.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is not in the best interest
of the public or our democracy to air
one-sided propaganda
under the guise of
"news" two weeks
before an election.

This is essentially
a gift to the Bush
campaign and should be viewed as such by
those enforcing
campaign financing
laws.

I urge the FCC to prohibit Sinclair
from strong-arming
its stations to run
this piece.

Thank-you.
